Subject: Regarding research collaboration

Reference: Your letter no. 87/2018 Dated. 16/06/2018

Respected Sir,

We all clearly knows that most critically important scientific issues or innovations can often be solved by working together of team of researchers from different backgrounds. Research collaboration encourages the establishment of effective communication and partnerships and also offers equal opportunities among the team members. Accordingly, we are also eager to establish research collaboration with your college in the field of material science, sensors and biosensors, mutation breeding, organic synthesis and crystal growth for SHG application.

Kindly, do the needful.
