

Report on National Service Scheme International Voters Day

Date: January 25, 2024

Venue: Shri Anand College, Pathardi

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS)

Programme Officer: Dr. Ismail Shaikh

Introduction: International Voters Day was celebrated on January 25, 2024, with great enthusiasm and vigor. The event aimed to emphasize the importance of democracy and voter participation in shaping the future of the nation. Organized jointly by the Pathardi Tehsil Office and Shri Anand College, Pathardi, the event witnessed active participation from students, faculty, and local authorities.

Event Highlights:

- Inaugural Ceremony: The event commenced with the auspicious lighting of the lamp by respected dignitaries, including Dr. Sheshrao Pawar, Principal of Shri Anand College, and Mr. Prasad Mate, Tehsildar of Pathardi. Their presence added significance to the occasion, symbolizing the unity and strength of the community in upholding democratic values.
- Awareness Rally: A vibrant rally was organized, featuring students, faculty members, and administrative staff from Shri Anand College, along with representatives from the Tehsil Office. The rally traversed through the main streets, spreading awareness about the significance of voter participation and the democratic process. Participants enthusiastically chanted slogans and distributed informational pamphlets to engage the public.
- Interactive Sessions: Following the rally, interactive sessions were conducted at Shri Anand College, where experts and guest speakers addressed the audience on various aspects of democracy, electoral processes, and the role of youth in nation-building. Students actively participated in discussions, sharing their views and insights on electoral reforms and voter education initiatives.
- Vote Pledge Campaign: As a symbolic gesture of commitment to democratic principles, a "Vote Pledge Campaign" was initiated, wherein participants pledged to exercise their voting rights responsibly in all elections. Pledges were collected from students, faculty, and attendees, reflecting their dedication to uphold the democratic ethos of the nation.

Conclusion: The celebration of International Voters Day served as a timely reminder of the importance of active citizenship and democratic participation in nation-building. Through engaging activities, informative sessions, and community outreach initiatives, the event fostered a sense of civic responsibility and encouraged youth empowerment. The collective efforts of the National Service Scheme, in collaboration with local authorities and educational institutions, underscored the commitment to nurturing informed and responsible citizens capable of shaping a brighter future for the nation.

Acknowledgments: We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all the dignitaries, organizers, participants, and volunteers who contributed to the success of the International Voters Day celebrations. Their dedication and enthusiasm played a pivotal role in raising awareness about the democratic process and inspiring positive change in society.

Report on National Service Scheme International AIDS Day Rangoli and Poster Competition

Date: December 1, 2023

Venue: Shri Anand College Pathardi

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS)

Programme Officer: Dr. Ismail Shaikh

On December 1, 2023, in observance of World AIDS Day, the National Service Scheme (NSS) organized an AIDS Day Rangoli and Poster Competition. The event aimed to raise awareness about HIV/AIDS and promote understanding and support for individuals affected by the disease.

Event Highlights:

Rangoli Competition: The event commenced with a Rangoli Competition, where participants exhibited their creativity by crafting colorful and intricate designs related to HIV/AIDS awareness. Students showcased their artistic talents using rangoli powder, flower petals, and other materials to create visually appealing patterns and motifs. The Rangoli designs depicted messages of solidarity, hope, and compassion towards those affected by HIV/AIDS.

Poster Competition: Simultaneously, a Poster Competition was held, providing students with a platform to convey important messages about HIV/AIDS prevention, treatment, and support services. Participants designed informative posters using illustrations, slogans, and statistics to raise awareness and combat misconceptions surrounding the disease. The posters served as educational tools, aiming to dispel myths and promote accurate information about HIV/AIDS.

Judging and Awards: A panel of judges, including faculty members and invited guests, evaluated the Rangoli and Poster entries based on criteria such as creativity, relevance to the theme, and clarity of message. After thorough deliberation, winners were selected in various categories, including Best Rangoli, Best Poster, and Most Informative Poster. The winners were awarded certificates of recognition for their outstanding contributions to HIV/AIDS awareness.

Acknowledgements: The success of the AIDS Day Rangoli and Poster Competition would not have been possible without the dedicated efforts of Dr. Ismail Shaikh, NSS Programme Officer, and Dr. Jayshree Khedkar, along with the support of Principal Dr. Sheshrao Pawar and the entire NSS team. Their leadership and guidance ensured the smooth execution of the event, contributing to its meaningful impact within the college community.

Conclusion: The AIDS Day Rangoli and Poster Competition served as a valuable platform for students to creatively engage with the issue of HIV/AIDS and promote awareness among their peers. Through their artistic expressions and thoughtful designs, participants made significant contributions to the ongoing fight against HIV/AIDS stigma and discrimination. The event underscored the NSS's commitment to social responsibility and community engagement, inspiring positive change and fostering a culture of compassion and inclusion.

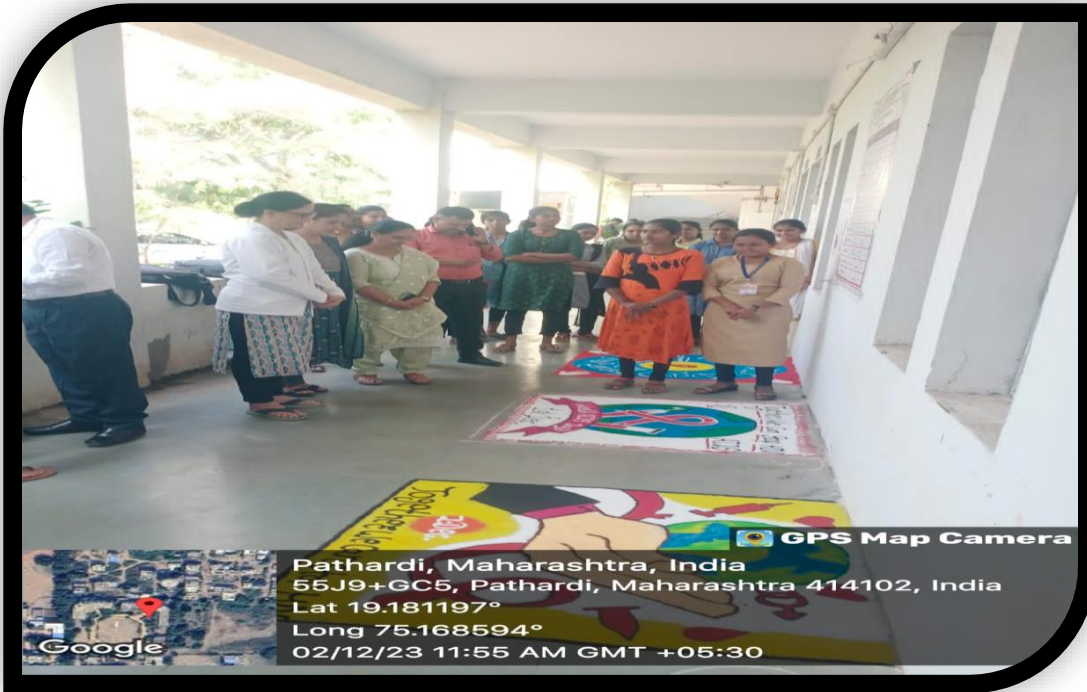

We extend our sincere appreciation to all participants, organizers, judges, and attendees for their active involvement and support in making the event a resounding success.
